DATE : 4 November 2023.

P.C. :

None for the Applicants. The application, taken out by the Applicants/ Claimants in the first appeal filed by them for enhancement of the compensation awarded in respect of acquisition of land, is entirely misconceived. The application seeks direction to the Respondent- State to deposit the amount already granted in favour of the Appellant/ Applicant with interest and also a direction to expedite the execution proceeding.

2. As regards the first part is concerned, if there is no order restraining the Applicant from executing the decree, then execution of the decree is a proper remedy. In this application, we cannot direct that the execution of the proceeding pending before the learned Judge be expedited within a time bound period.

3. The civil application is disposed of leaving it open to the Appellant to adopt appropriate remedy in law.
