

2. The First Information Report was registered at the instance of respondent No. 3 on 27.01.2023 alleging that the accused had obtained the signatures of the complainant's mother and by preparing fabricated documents cheated the complainant and others. On completion of investigation, charge-sheet was filed.

3. It is submitted by the learned Advocates appearing for both the sides that the parties have resolved the dispute amicably. On account of settlement executed between them, the complainant has agreed to quash the impugned proceedings.

4. The complainant is present before the Court. She has filed affidavit dated 19.10.2023 expressing her consent for quashing the proceedings. In paragraph No. 4 of the affidavit, it is stated that the FIR was registered by her due to non payment of consideration amount of sale of shop. She has received the said consideration amount of Rs. 25,00,000/- from the petitioners and she has no grievance of whatsoever nature against them, she do not want to proceed against them for the alleged offence or allegations therein. She has no objection, if the FIR registered at Pimpri Police Station vide Crime No. 123 of 2023, which culminated into RCC No. 595 of 2023 pending before the JMFC, Pimpri is quashed and set aside.

5. In view of settlement and consensus between parties for quashing the FIR, the relief sought in this petition can be granted.
