CORAM : NITIN JAMDAR &
ABHAY AHUJA, JJ.

DATE : 21 FEBRUARY 2023

P.C. :-

Heard the learned Counsel for the parties.

2. Though the petition is replete with assertions that the Officers of the Respondents had sought to coerce the Petitioners, the learned Counsel for the Petitioners states that these assertions are not being pressed in light of the reply affidavit filed by the Respondents in which it is stated that the investigation is in progress and after following necessary provisions of law, steps would be taken and the Petitioners will have an opportunity to respond and to avail further remedies as may be available in law. The learned Counsel for the Petitioners states that the stand taken by the Respondents would suffice for the purpose of this petition.

3. The learned Counsel for the Petitioners states that in light of the stand taken by the Respondents, the Petitioners do not want to take the petition further.

4. The writ petition is accordingly disposed of.
