Shri N.B. Kalwaghe, Advocate for the appellant.
Shri Mangesh Kadu, A.G.P. for the State.

CORAM:- URMILA JOSHI-PHALKE, J.
DATED :- FEBRUARY 08, 2023.

By preferring this application, the appellant is seeking condonation of delay of 104 days which is caused in filing the application for restoration of the appeal.

2. As per the contention of the appellant, the appeal was under objection as deficit court fee was not deposited. As the appellant failed to deposit the said amount, the registration of the appeal is rejected.

3. It is the contention of the appellant that by preferring the appeal, the appellant has sought enhancement of the compensation. As the landed property of the appellant is already acquired by the Government, the appellant was not having any source of income to deposit court fee. The amount was also not deposited at the time of filing of the appeal and they could not get the amount of compensation and hence, could not deposit the deficit court fee, and therefore, the registration of the appeal was rejected. Now the Court fee is available with the appellant and he will deposit the deficit court fee, and therefore, he be permitted to deposit the deficit court fee by condoning the delay.

4. In view of the reasons mentioned in the application, delay of 104 days is condoned.

5. Civil application is disposed of.

MISC. CIVIL APPLICATION (ST.) NO. 2205 OF 2023
