A preliminary objection is raised by the learned Deputy Solicitor General of India (ASGI) that the grievance in the petition can only be entertained by the Central Administrative Tribunal (CAT).

3. We therefore dispose of the petition.

4. The learned ASGI Mr. Deshpande, fairly states that if the petitioner approaches the CAT within two weeks by filing a fresh application or by amending the pending Original Application, no objection on the ground of limitation, delay or laches shall be taken.
