The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 427 and 506(ii) of IPC r/w Section 4 of TNWH Act, in Crime No.372 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the de-facto complainant is that the accused trespassed into his house and by abusing the de-facto complainant and his family members in a filthy language, had assaulted him with wooden log, iron rod and also damaged his vehicles. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the de-facto complainant is an accused in POCSO case, in which he had taken the photographs of the girl belongs to the petitioners' family and when it was questioned by the petitioners there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the de-facto complainant and in order to escape from his case, the de-facto complainant has lodged a false complaint against the petitioners. He also stated that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that due to the previous enmity, the petitioners trespassed into the de-facto complainant's house, abused and assaulted him with weapons, causing simple injuries and they have also damaged his vehicles. He also stated that the investigation is almost completed, however, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioners and also
