Crl.O.P.No.320 of 2023

T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 379 of IPC in Crime No.649 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners are alleged to have transported 6 units of pebbles illegally by using lorry. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that without prejudice to their contentions, the petitioners are prepared to deposit an amount of Rs.10,000/- towards any charitable organization or association. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the quantity of pebbles involved is 6 units. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending against the petitioners. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the materials available on record.

6.Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned Counsel and also of the fact that there is no previous case against him, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions;

7.Accordingly, the petitioners are jointly directed to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only) to the Registered Advocate Clerk Association, Cuddalore and on such receipt and receipt of proof of payment, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days
