T.V.THAMILSELVI,J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 & 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.419 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the de-facto complainant is that due to the previous enmity, the accused have abused the de-facto complainant in a filthy language and assaulted him with wooden logs, causing grievous injuries. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the de-facto complainant has lodged a false complaint only in order to wreak vengeance. He further submitted that the petitioners are no way connected with the alleged occurrence and they are ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that due to the previous enmity, the petitioners along with the other accused abused the de-facto complainant and assaulted him with wooden logs, due to which, he suffered grievous injuries. He further submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, however, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioners, on instructions, submitted that without prejudice to the rights, the petitioners are ready to deposit a considerable amount to the credit of the crime number. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.
