Crl.O.P.No.411 of 2023

T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent Police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324, 353 and 506(1) of IPC, in Crime No.625 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of prosecution is that on 30.10.2022 based on the secret information the respondent police conducted a search in the house of the petitioner and found the accused persons hiding inside the petitioner's house. When the respondent police entered into the petitioner's house, at that time, the petitioner and other accused person abused the defacto complainant using filthy language and assaulted him due to which the defacto complainant sustained injury. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that on 30.10.2022 based on the secret information the respondent police conducted a search in the house of the petitioner and found the accused persons hiding inside the petitioner's house. When the respondent police entered into the petitioner's house, at that time, the petitioner and other accused person abused the defacto complainant using filthy language and assaulted him due to which the defacto complainant sustained injury. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail
