The Writ Appeal has been filed challenging the order dated 27.11.2012 passed by the Writ Court in WP No.12105 of 2011.

2. Today, when the matter was taken up for final disposal, learned counsel for the appellant has fairly stated before this Court that the respondent Board has now come forward to provide alternative accommodation to the appellant in the tenements constructed by the Tamil Nadu Slum Clearance Board.

3. Learned counsel for the respondent Board would submit that alternative accommodation for the appellant is still available with the respondent Board in the said tenement.

4. It is agreed by the respondent Board that if the appellant pays the beneficiary costs to the respondent Board for the said tenement within two weeks' time, allotment order would be issued to the appellant within a period of three weeks thereafter.

5. In default of payment of beneficiary costs by the appellant to the respondent Board, the respondent Board is permitted to proceed in accordance with law for evicting the appellant from the said land in question.

6. In view of the above, this Court is inclined to pass the following directions:

i) The respondent Board is directed to serve notice to the appellant within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this judgment.
