Crl.O.P.No.775 of 2023

T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 and 506(2) of IPC in Crime No.133 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are adjacent land owners and due to some dispute with regard to digging of well, there arose a wordy quarrel in between the petitioner and the defacto complainant and the petitioner assaulted the defacto complainant and abused her by using filthy language. Hence the complaint.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given against him in order to wreck vengeance. He would further submit that he is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court and hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner slapped the defacto complainant and abused her using filthy language, however, no one has been injured in the said act. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Advocate (crl.side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned
