Crl.O.P.No.741 of 2023

T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.13 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to political dispute, there arose a wordy quarrel in between the petitioner and the defacto complainant and the petitioner and the other accused person assaulted the defacto complainant by using wooden log, due to which he sustained severe injuries and got admitted in the hospital. Hence the complaint.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to political dispute, a false complaint has been given against him. He would further submit that he is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court and hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that due to political dispute, the petitioner along with other accused persons attacked the defacto complainant due to which he sustained grievous injuries. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Advocate (crl.side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Hosur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent
