Crl.O.P.No.806 of 2023

T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(B), 323, 324, 355, 448 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.471 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to family dispute, there arose a wordy quarrel in between the petitioners and the defacto complainant and the petitioners herein attacked the defacto complainant by using iron rod, abused him using filthy language and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence the complaint.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and due to previous enmity, a false complaint has been given against them. He would further submit that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court and hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are relatives and due to property dispute, the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant, due to which he sustained injuries. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners as well as the learned Government Advocate (crl.side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned
