ORDER

This Criminal Miscellaneous Petition has been filed to suspend the sentence imposed on the petitioner by the first respondent, vide order dated 15.09.2022 passed in Na.Ka.2772/2022/A7 and enlarge him on bail, pending disposal of the Criminal Revision Petition.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner was made to execute a bond under Section 110 of Cr.P.C. for maintaining good behaviour on 11.08.2022. He further submitted that, on 04.09.2022, a case in Crime No.265 of 2022 was registered against the petitioner for the offences punishable under Sections 272, 273, 328 IPC r/w 24(i) COTPA Act. The learned counsel also submitted that, without giving any opportunity to the petitioner, the first respondent has passed the impugned order, believing the version of the second respondent police and sentenced him to undergo imprisonment for the remaining period of bond and the above order is under challenge.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner further submitted that, now, the petitioner is in prison for violating the bond executed under Section 110 Cr.P.C., as directed by the first respondent and hence, the petitioner may be enlarged on bail till the disposal of this revision.

4. When the matter was taken up, the learned Govt. Advocate (crl.side) appearing for the respondents objected to release the petitioner on bail.

5. I have considered the submissions made on both side and perused the materials available on record.

6. The first respondent, after recording the statement of the petitioner and perusing the documents, has passed the impugned order and sentenced the petitioner to undergo imprisonment for the remaining period of bond and the same is under challenge.

7. At this juncture, it is relevant to note that a Division Bench was constituted by the Honourable Chief Justice of this Court to deal with the cases with regard to applicability of section 122(1)(b) Cr.P.C.

8. In such circumstances, since the issues to be decided by the Division
