3. In the light of that, we follow the same course and pass the following orders:

Learned Single Judge had also passed further orders, which in our opinion would be required to be modified. In the light of that, we pass the following orders:

(i) In some of the appeals, this Court had directed the present appellant to deposit 50% of the amount of enhanced compensation, which according to the learned counsel for the appellant, has been complied with and the 50% of the amount is deposited. The 50% of the amount already deposited shall be transferred to the Court of the concerned District Judge, where the application filed by the appellants under Section 34 of the Act of 1996 is pending;

(ii) In other appeals, where the amount of 50% of the enhanced compensation amount is not deposited, the same shall be deposited by the present appellant with the concerned Court within a period of ten weeks from today (i.e., 23.08.2023);

- (iii) The original petitioners are at liberty to apply for the withdrawal of the amount, which application shall be considered by the concerned District Judge, on its own merits and after hearing all parties concerned, appropriate orders shall be passed;
- (iv) The present appellant may also seek further orders on the stay petition before the learned District Judge;
- (v) Depending upon the order, that may be passed by the learned District Judge on the application of the original petitioners for withdrawal of the amount, further steps may be taken with regard to the amount, if lying in the Court, such as to invest the same in a Nationalised Bank or otherwise;
- (vi) Considering the huge amount involved, the learned District Judge, with whom the application under Section 34 of the Act of 1996 is pending, may endeavour to decide the application under Section 34 of the Act of 1996 expeditiously.
