

WEB COPY

CRP.No.259 of 2023

M. NIRMAL KUMAR, J

In view of the compromise entered into between the petitioner and the respondent. The parties have agreed to settle the properties, out of two properties one property has been settled and with regard to other property there was a Bank loan.

2. Admittedly, in the said property the respondent along with child were residing. The petitioner has not disturbed the respondent in any manner with regard to enjoyment of property.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that due to ensuing election there are restrictions in handling money, hence, seeks for short accommodation.

4. Post on 18.06.2024, for reporting settlement.

08.04.2024

tsh