Crl.O.P.No.1321 of 2023

T.V.THAMILSELVI,J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent Police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 & 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.11 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the de-facto complainant is that due to the previous dispute, the accused had abused the de-facto complainant and assaulted him, due to which, he sustained injuries. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is no way connected with the alleged incident and due to the previous enmity, the de-facto complainant has lodged a false complaint. He also stated that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court . Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that due to the previous enmity, the petitioner had abused and assaulted the de-facto complainant, causing grievous injuries. He also stated that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, however, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner and also taking note of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
