ORDER

Learned counsel for the petitioning creditor submits that when the matter was listed before the learned Master, the petitioning creditor was not available. He further submits that since the whereabouts of the petitioning creditor is not known, he could not contact him, and as such, he was not in a position to examine P.W.1 in the present case and conduct trial before the learned Master. Therefore, the matter is listed before the Court today.

2. When the matter is taken up for hearing, learned counsel for the petitioning creditor again submits that he could not contact his client since his whereabouts are not known. In such circumstances, this Court is of the considered view that the petitioning creditor is not interested in prosecuting the matter.

I.P. No. 236 of 2003

3. Accordingly, this petition is dismissed for non-prosecution. No costs.
