4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner along with the other accused abused the de-facto complainant in a filthy language and robbed a sum of Rs.700/- from him at knife point. He further submitted that the investigation is almost completed. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner and also considering that the investigation is almost completed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the
