respondent, no order so far has been passed. Therefore, seeking a mandamus to the official respondents to pass orders on the said representations given by the petitioner, the present writ petition has been filed.

4. Heard Mr.Yogesh Kannadasan, learned Special Government Pleader appearing for the official respondents, who would submit that, enquiry has already been conducted and soon orders would be passed and in this regard, a reasonable time could be given to the respondents, he contended.

5. In view of the orders going to be passed in this writ petition, notice to the private respondents is hereby dispensed with.

6. In view of the said submission made by the learned Special Government Pleader appearing for the official respondents, this Court is inclined to dispose of this writ petition with the following order:

That there shall be a direction to the second respondent to complete the enquiry, if it is not completed, on the
