The petitioners, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 447, 294(b), 427, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Cr.No.5 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that due to previous enmity the petitioners abused and attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries to him. The further case is that the petitioner caused damages to the property belonging to the defacto complainant. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that he has no way connected with the alleged occurrence and he has been falsely implicated in this case. However, the learned counsel, on instructions, further submits that the petitioners, without prejudice to his rights, is ready to deposit some amount to the credit of the crime number as imposed by this Court. Hence, the learned counsel prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
