

Crl.O.P.No.1616 of 2023

T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offence under Sections 294(b), 323 and 506 (ii) of IPC in Cr.No.401 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is the mother-in-law of the petitioner and there was matrimonial dispute between them. The further case is that the petitioner picked up quarrel with the defacto complainant and her daughter who is wife of the petitioner and abused them in filthy language and also attacked them with hands. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is a innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner picked up quarrel with the defacto complainant and her daughter who is wife of the petitioner and abused them in filthy language and also attacked them with hands. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by learned counsel appearing for either side and the fact that there was a matrimonial dispute between them, due to which the occurrence has taken place, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No. II, Attur on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail
