Crl.O.P.No.1577 of 2023

T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324, 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.16 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to family dispute there was wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant. Further, on the date of occurrence, the petitioner along with the other accused had abused the defacto complainant using filthy language. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submits that the petitioner is no way connected with the alleged offence. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submits that due to family dispute there was wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant. Further, on the date of occurrence, the petitioner along with the other accused had abused the defacto complainant using filthy language. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the submissions made by the both counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance before the learned Judicial Magistrate III, at Tiruppur on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned
