Crl.O.P.No.1567 of 2023

T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 406, 420, 294(b), and 506(1) of IPC in Crime No.2 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that in order to secure Government Job, the petitioners have collected a sum of Rs.13 lakhs/- from the defacto complainant on various dates and some of his known persons had also given amount around Rs.26 lakhs and cheated them. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they are nothing to do with the alleged offence. Due to money dispute, a false complaint has been given against them. He would further submit that without prejudice, the petitioners are ready and willing to deposit a sum of Rs.4,00,000/- to the credit of Crime No.2 of 2023. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (CrI.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that in order to secure Government Job, the petitioners have collected a sum of Rs.13 lakhs/- from the defacto complainant on various dates and some of his known persons had also given amount around Rs.26 lakhs and cheated them. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners as well as the learned Government Advocate (crl.side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6.Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also taking note of the fact that now the petitioners are ready to deposit the said amount, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
