ORDER

The petitioner is the accused before the Trial Court.

2. The first respondent herein who is the de-facto/complainant has filed a complaint before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court No.1, Poonamalee under Section 156 (3) of Cr.P.C for registration of the F.I.R for alleged misappropriation of offence and also cheating.

3. The learned Judicial Magistrate No.1, Poonamalee by order dated 25.07.2018, after considering the fact that prima-facie case is made out with the Inspector of Police (Crime), SRMC Police Station, Porur, Chennai, directed the investigation to be completed within a period of 60 days. Aggrieved against the said order, this Criminal Revision Petition has been

4. When the matter is taken up for hearing, the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) has submitted that, pursuant to the impugned order, dated 25.07.2018, the second respondent has registered a case under Section 506(ii) I.P.C on 25.08.2018 for alleged offences under Sections 406 and 420 of I.P.C.

5. It is also represented that the petitioner/accused has filed anticipatory bail petition before the learned Principal Sessions Judge, Tiruvallur and the same was granted and the subject matter of the property has also been seized, including the property in question, and after following the procedures, handed over the same to the first respondent/de-facto-complainant.

6. After going through the impugned order dated 25.07.2018, passed by the learned Magistrate and also the subsequent developments, I find that nothing survives in this matter, except to issue a direction to the concerned Inspector of Police to complete the investigation and file a
