T.V.THAMILSELVI,J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 314, 498(A), 323, 406, 506(2) of IPC r/w Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, 2002 in Crime No.7 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the defacto complainant got married in the year 2007. Further it is alleged that in the year 2012, the petitioner married another women and when the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, the petitioner and his family members assaulted her and thrown her child outside the house. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that due to a matrimonial dispute, a false case has been registered against the petitioner. He would further submit that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court and hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioner is the husband of the defacto complainant and they got married in the year 2007. He further submits that the petitioner has abused the defacto complainant due to matrimonial dispute between them. Hence, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that there was matrimonial dispute between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Considering the nature of the family issue between the parties, this Court directs the petitioner to go for mediation with the defacto complainant at Mediation and Conciliation Centre, Tiruvallur District on 27.02.2023 through legal services for three sittings.

7.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from
