3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that there is no specific overtact attributed against the petitioners and they are innocent persons and they have not at all committed any offence as alleged by the respondent police. He would submit that they are the sole bread winner of their family. He would submit that they are nothing to do with the instant case and they will abide by any condition that may be imposed by this court. He would further submit that the investigation is almost completed and that the petitioners have been suffering incarceration from 16.12.2022. Hence, he prayed to grant bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for respondent would submit that totally, there are 4 accused involved in this case and the petitioners are arrayed as A3 and A4. He would submit that father was murdered by A1 and A2 for the reason that their father is having illicit intimacy with another lady and not taking care of their mother. He would submit that their friends also participated in the crime and attacked him. He would submit that if they are released on bail, they would tamper the witnesses and hamper the investigation and the investigation is not yet completed. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by both counsel and also considering gravity of offence committed by the petitioners by colluding with his friends murdered deceased, thereby sons of deceased killed his father and it is pre-planned murder and the fact that if they are released on bail, there is possibility of tampering the witnesses and hampering the investigation, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioners. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
