The show cause notice dated 27.07.2009 issued by the second respondent under Section 57(4) of the Trade Mark Act, 1999, is under challenge in the present writ petition.

2. The petitioner state that they are the members of the Mohonot Family and belong to M/s.Jay Group of Companies.

3. The petitioner has been in the business of manufacturing Plastic Tag Pins/Fasteners and Plastic Tag Guns since 28.12.1993. The petitioner further expanded its business to manufacture Textile Cleaning Spray Guns in the year 1997.

4. The petitioner has bona fidely adopted the tag mark 'ARROW' in the year 1994 for manufacture and sale of 'Plastic Tag Pins' and 'Plastic Tag Guns' and has used the said trade mark as extensively. The petitioner has filed the present writ petition and an order of interim stay was granted and thus the Authorities have not passed any orders.

8. No writ against the show cause notice is entertainable in a routine manner. The writ against the show cause notice is maintainable only if the show cause notice was issued by an incompetent authority having no jurisdiction or an allegation of mala fides are raised.

9. However, in the present writ petition, the impugned show cause notice reveals that the Government property has been erroneously registered under the provisions of the Trade Marks Act, 1999. If so, an adjudication is required by affording an opportunity to the writ petitioner. The show cause notice was issued providing an opportunity to the writ petitioner and the petitioner also had submitted their explanations to the show cause notice issued to them.

10. That being the factum, the petitioner ought to have participated in the adjudication for the purpose of finalising the issues.

Contrarily, the petitioner has filed the present writ petition challenging the show cause notice instead of adjudicating the issues or defending their case before the Competent Authorities under the Trade Marks Act, 1999.

11. The High Court cannot adjudicate the disputed facts on merits under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, which is to be done based on the documents and evidences on record. Therefore, the petitioner is at liberty to adjudicate the issues based on documents and evidences.

12. With the abovesaid liberty, the writ petition stands dismissed. However, there shall be no order as to costs. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petition is also dismissed.
