ORDER

The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 02.01.2023 for the alleged offence under Sections 457, 511, 324, 355, 506(i) of I.P.C. r/w 4 of TNPWH Act in Crime No.3 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of prosecution is that on 09.12.2022, during midnight, the petitioner said to have entered into the house of defacto complainant, assaulted her with wooden logs, thereby caused fracture in her leg and also snatched her gold ring. Hence, the complaint was registered against the petitioner.

3. The learned counsel appearing for petitioner submitted that the entire allegation is false, vindictive, wanton and he is no way connected with the offence. He would submit that he has not at all committed any of offence as alleged by the respondent police and due to previous enmity, he has been falsely implicated in this case and he will abide by any condition that may be imposed by this court. He would further submit that the investigation is almost completed and that the petitioner has been suffering incarceration for more than 28 days from 02.01.2023. Hence, he prayed to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for respondent would submit that there are 2 previous cases for the offence under Sec.307 and 324 of I.P.C. pending against him. He would submit that on the date of occurrence, the petitioner entered into house of the defacto complainant and assaulted her and also snatched her gold ring. He would submit that that if he is released on bail, he would tamper the witnesses and hamper the investigation and the investigation is almost completed. He would submit that now the injured discharged from the hospital. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances, and also considering the fact that the investigation almost completed and the fact that the injured discharged from the hospital and also considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined
