

A.No.756 of 2023
in C.S.No.353 of 2018

SENTHILKUMAR RAMAMOORTHY, J

The defendant in the suit has presented this application for permission to exhibit the list of documents described in the Judges summons. This application is filed at the stage of recording the defendant's evidence. In the affidavit in support of this application, it is stated that these documents could not be traced at the time of filing the written statement it is further stated that the documents are relevant for purposes of establishing the defendant's defence.

2. Learned counsel for the plaintiff opposes this application on the ground that the defendant has not provided sufficient reason for not filing the documents earlier.

3. Upon considering the above, this application is allowed subject to the objections of the plaintiff inter alia on grounds of admissibility, relevance and proof.

4. List before the Additional Master IV on 06.03.2023.

23.02.2023

nhs