.. Respondents

This case came up for settlement before the National Lok Adalat. Both the parties are present. The learned counsel for the appellant, Mr. K. Varadhakamaraj and the learned counsel for the 2nd respondent Mr. P. Suresh Srinivasan are present. No appearance for the fourth respondent. After mutual discussion, negotiation, mediation and conciliation between both parties, they arrived at a compromise to settle the matter as follows:

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

Both the parties and their respective counsel are present.

2.The instant appeal has been preferred by the claimant seeking enhancement of the compensation awarded by the Tribunal. The Tribunal awarded a compensation of Rs.3,79,587/- @ 7.5.% p.a. The 2nd respondent had deposited the said sum with accrued interest before the Tribunal.

3.Parties have now agreed for a settlement, by which the 2nd respondent/Insurance Company has agreed to pay an additional sum of Rs.1,50,000/- (Rupees One lakh and fifty thousand only) in full quit to the claimant, within a period of four (4) weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. On such deposit, the claimant shall be entitled to withdraw the award amount determined by the Tribunal along with the additional amount now agreed by the parties.

4.The Tribunal is directed to follow the usual mode of payment on proper identification of the parties, concerned, in accordance with the terms of the award, without insisting on any formal permission petition. The Civil Miscellaneous Appeal is disposed of accordingly.
