The petitioners, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 294(b), 323 and 506(ii) of IPC in Cr.No.11 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the father of the defacto complainant participated in the Grama Saba meeting where the petitioners also participated in a drunken mood and attacked the father of the defacto complainant and also abused and him. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that he has no way connected with the alleged occurrence and he has been falsely implicated in this case. However, the learned counsel, on instructions, further submits that the petitioners, without prejudice to his rights, is ready to deposit some amount to the credit of the crime number as imposed by this Court. Hence, the learned counsel prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the intervenor vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail as the defacto complainant was severely injured.

5. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) submits that there was some wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the father of the defacto complainant, due to which the petitioners attacked the father of the defacto complainant and caused severe injuries to him. Hence he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and that the petitioners on his own volition, is ready to deposit some amount to the credit of the crime number, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) to the credit of Crime No.11 of 2023, within a period of fifteen (15) days and on such deposit, the petitioners is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, before the District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate Court, Gummudipoondi, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand
