ORDER

The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 04.12.2022 for the alleged offence under Sections 341, 294(b) and 307 of I.P.C. and subsequently it was altered into Secs. 147, 148, 120(b), 341, 294(b) and 307 of I.P.C. in Crime No.195 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of prosecution is that due to political enmity, the petitioner along with other accused waylaid husband of defacto complainant and assaulted him, due to which, he sustained injuries and he was admitted in the hospital for treatment. Hence, the complaint was registered against the petitioner.

3. The learned counsel appearing for petitioner submitted that the entire allegation is false, vindictive, wanton and he is no way connected with the offence. He would submit that he has not at all committed any of offence as alleged by the respondent police and due to previous enmity, he has been falsely implicated in this case and he will abide by any condition that may be imposed by this court. He would further submit that the investigation is almost completed and that the petitioner has been suffering incarceration for more than 59 days from 04.12.2022. Hence, he prayed to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for respondent would submit that totally, there are 10 accused involved in this case and he is arrayed as A10 and no previous case pending against him. He would submit that on the date of occurrence, due to political enmity, the petitioner along with other accused waylaid husband of defacto complainant and assaulted him, in which he sustained injuries and subsequently after treatment, he was discharged from the hospital. He would submit that that if he is released on bail, he would tamper the witnesses and hamper the investigation and the investigation is almost completed. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances, and also considering the fact that the investigation almost completed and the fact that the injured discharged from the hospital and also considering the
