(Order of the court was made by R.Mahadevan, J.)

petitioner / appellant shall not be disturbed. The learned counsel further submitted that without considering the actual position that the documents sought for by the third respondent are the orders granting recognition / approval granted to the institution for a particular course by the authorities concerned and the same cannot be easily furnished by the petitioner / appellant and also, without taking note of the order of the learned Judge in proper perspective, the second respondent hastily passed an order dated 11.01.2023 cancelling the appointment of the appellant / writ petitioner for non-production of the documents by her. Consequent to the same, the fourth respondent relieved the petitioner / appellant from service, which was informed to her by communication dated 18.01.2023. According to the learned counsel, such orders dated 11.01.2023 and 18.01.2023 have been communicated to the petitioner / appellant, only after filing of this writ appeal. Therefore, the learned counsel prayed for an order of interim stay in favour of the petitioner / appellant.

3. Having regard to the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner / appellant that the orders so passed by the respondent authorities dated 11.1.2023 and 18.01.2023 in cancelling the appointment of the petitioner
