The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 4(1)(a), 4(1-A) and 24A of TNP Act, in Crime No.566 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 19.12.2022, the respondent police conducted a raid at Tasmac Bar with regard to selling of liquor and various liquor bottles are seized from the petitioner. Further it is alleged that the petitioner being the owner of the said bar, the respondent police arrested the petitioner and registered a case against him. Hence the complaint.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner was not present in the bar at the time of alleged occurrence and he has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner without prejudice his rights, on his own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable organization or association as may be directed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner along with other accused persons were allegedly selling of liquor and the various liquor bottles from the Tasmac Bar are seized from the petitioner. He further submits that the investigation is almost completed. Hence, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsels, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the learned Metropolitan Magistrate No.XXIII, Saidapet, Chennai – 15, on condition that the
