The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 4(1)(aa), 4(1-A) (ii) of TNP Act, in Crime No.507 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused were found in illegal possession of 70 litres of I.D. Arrack. Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that based on the confession of A-2, this petitioner was arrested and he is the owner of the said vehicle. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner without prejudice his rights, on his own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable organization or association as may be directed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner along with other accused were found in illegal possession of 70 litres of I.D. Arrack. He further submits that the investigation is almost completed. Hence, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsels and also the fact that the petitioner without prejudice his rights, on his own volition, is ready and willing to contribute some amount to any charitable organization or association, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Vaniyambadi, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two
