The petitioners, who apprehend arrest for the alleged offence under Section 147, 294(b), 323, 324, 506 (ii) of IPC in Cr.No.31 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was some family dispute between the petitioner and the defacto complainant with regard to dowry due to which there was wordy quarrel between the petitioner's family and the defacto complainant's family. Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that due to family dispute, the defacto complainant and his family members were attacked the petitioners and his family members. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submits that there was some family dispute between the petitioner and the defacto complainant with regard to dowry due to which there was wordy quarrel between the petitioner's family and the defacto complainant's family. He further submitted that there was a case and case in counter filed in Crime No.32 of 2023. He also submitted that the parties called for Jamath. However, he opposed for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the stage of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned VII Metropolitan Magistrate Court, George Town, Chennai, on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned
