The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 341, 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.304 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the defacto complainant's wife are friends. The defacto complainant suspected his wife relationship with the petitioner. While so, on 12.07.2022, there was a wordy quarrel, thereby the petitioner assaulted the defacto complainant with iron rod and also threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that due to previous enmity between the petitioner and the defacto complainant he has been falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner and the defacto complainant's wife are friends by suspecting his wife relationship with the petitioner, there was a wordy quarrel, thereby assaulted the defacto complainant with iron rod and also threatened with dire consequences. He further submitted that the petitioner has three previous cases pending against him and the injured has been treated as out patient. Hence, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsels, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Ulundhurpet, Kallakurichi, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only),
