3. When the matter is taken up for hearing today, Mr. Anand Gopalan, learned counsel for the Respondents, relied upon an order passed by this Court in W.P.No.15265 & 15267 of 2021 dated 17.11.2023, wherein in an identical issue this Court by referring an order passed by this Court in W.P.No.2732 of 2020 dated 05.02.2020 held as under:

4. When the matter is taken up for hearing today, Ms. V.M. Sreenidhi, for AGAM Legal Associates, learned counsel for the Respondents, relied upon an order passed by this Court in W.P.No.2732 of 2020 dated 05.02.2020, wherein in an identical issue this Court has held as under:

“2. It is seen from records that the petitioner was working as a Contract Labour and he had given a representation to the 3rd respondent to regularize his service inline with 12 (3) Settlement. The 3rd respondent has rejected the claim made by the petitioner by proceedings dated 26.04.2018. This order has now become a subject matter of challenge before this Court.

3. Considering the nature of claim that has been made by the petitioner and the reasons assigned by the 3rd respondent for rejecting the same, this Court is not the appropriate authority to decide upon the rejection order passed by the 3rd respondent. The petitioner has to necessarily work out his remedy before the appropriate forum and seek for a substantial relief against the respondents. It would require factual considerations of 12(3) Settlement as well as the period during which the petitioner was engaged as contract labour.

W.P.No.4063 of 2021

4. This writ petition is therefore disposed of by giving liberty to the petitioner to work out his remedy before the appropriate forum, in accordance with law.

5. In view of the facts of circumstances of this case and the order passed passed by this Court in W.P.No.2732 of 2020 dated 05.02.2020, these Writ Petitions are not maintainable.”

6.In the result, these Writ Petitions are dismissed with liberty to the Petitioner to work out his remedy before the appropriate forum, in accordance with law. Consequently connected Miscellaneous Petitions are closed.”

4.In view of the same, this Writ Petition is dismissed with liberty to the Petitioner to work out his remedy before the appropriate forum, in accordance with law. Consequently connected Miscellaneous Petitions are closed.
