COMMON ORDER

Since the issue involved in all these writ petitions are one and the same, they are disposed of by this common order. Earlier, when these writ petitions came up for hearing on 20.04.2023, there was no representation on the side of the petitioner. Therefore, this Court had directed the Registry to list the writ petitions under the caption “for dismissal” on 21.04.2023.

2. Even today, when the writ petitions are called, there is no representation on behalf of the petitioner. Therefore, this Court has no other option except to dismiss the writ petitions for non-prosecution. Accordingly, the Writ Petitions are dismissed for non-prosecution. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
