The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 294(A) of IPC r/w Section 7(3) of the Lotteries Regulation Act, 1998 in Crime No.101 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found in possession of banned lottery tickets. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submitted that the petitioner, on his own volition, is ready and willing to contribute a sum of Rs.20,000/- to the credit of the Registered Advocate Clerk Association, Villupuram District that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

He would submit that there are five lottery sheets recovered from the petitioner. He would further submit that there are twelve previous cases pending against the petitioner. Hence he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the submission made by the learned Government Advocate, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
