Today, when the matter is taken up for hearing, the learned counsel for both sides represent that the parties have amicably resolved the dispute among themselves and have entered into Joint Memo of Compromise, dated 23.01.2023, which is produced before this Court and the same reads as follows:-

"1. The petitioner is the wife of the respondent and they have a son Master Avyukta who is presently pursuing class 7 in a school at Erode. The petitioner has filed the above CRP under Article 227 of the Constitution of India to strike off the proceedings in H.M.O.P. No.2804 of 2020 pending before the VI Additional Family Court, Chennai. The said proceedings was filed by the respondent herein for dissolution of marriage between the parties herein.

2. During the pendency of the proceedings, the parties forgetting the past pain suffering between them have decided to settle the dispute and differences amicably. Further for concluding the legal proceedings pending before the Hon'ble Court, they have decided to enter into a compromise and file a Joint Memo of Compromise in the above proceedings.

3. The terms of compromise are set out as hereunder:
