The petitioner who apprehends arrest for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 324, 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.44 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 17.02.2023 due to previous enmity with regard to usage of common pathway, the petitioners assaulted the defacto complainant and his wife with deadly weapons and threatened with dire consequences due to which they sustained injury and treated in hospital. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, on instructions, he further submits that the petitioners, without prejudice to his right, are ready to abide any condition imposed by this Honourable court. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that on 17.02.2023 due to previous enmity with regard to usage of common pathway, the petitioners assaulted the defacto complainant and his wife with deadly weapons and threatened with dire consequences due to which they sustained injury and treated in hospital. He further submitted the investigation is almost completed and injured discharged from hospital. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the investigation is almost completed and the injured discharged from hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance before the learned Judicial Magistrate II, Attur, on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only)
