Crl.O.P.No.4265 of 2023

T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 234, 364A, 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.742 of 2022 seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on the date of occurrence the petitioner along with other accused kidnapped, assaulted him with deadly weapons and abused him with filthy language due to which the defacto complainant sustained injury. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, on instructions, he further submits that the petitioner, without prejudice to his right, is ready to abide any condition imposed by this Honourable court. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that on the date of occurrence the petitioner along with other accused kidnapped, assaulted him with deadly weapons and abused him with filthy language due to which the defacto complainant sustained injury. He further submits that investigation is almost completed. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the investigation is almost completed and this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance before the learned V Judicial Magistrate, Salem, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the
