stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. He would also submit that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 04.02.2023 and hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that due to family dispute, the petitioner went to the house of the defacto complainant and attacked her, due to which, she gave birth to a premature girl baby and subsequently, the baby died. He would further submit that since the defacto complainant was under treatment, she was not able to give complaint immediately and after her recovery, she gave a complaint against the petitioner. He further submitted that the investigation is at preliminary stage. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the nature of offence committed by the petitioner and the investigation is at preliminary stage, this court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
