Crl.O.P.No.4390 of 2023

T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent Police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 324, 427 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.78 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to political enmity, the petitioners have trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant, abused him in a filthy language and attempted to assault him and also damaged his innova car. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and due to political enmity, they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that they are no way connected with the alleged offence and they are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that due to political enmity, the petitioners have trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant, abused him in a filthy language and attempted to assault him and also damaged his innova car. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the materials available on record.

6.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the submissions made by the learned counsel, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Kunnam, on condition
