3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that in fact, there was a dispute among the family members with respect to the enjoyment of properties, for which, the petitioners are no way connected with the offence. He would submit that they are innocent persons and they have not at all committed any offence as alleged by the respondent police. He would submit that there is no role of the petitioners in the alleged offence and they have been falsely implicated as accused in this case. He would further submit that the investigation is almost completed and that the petitioners have been suffering incarceration from 24.01.2023. Hence, he prayed to grant bail to the petitioners.

suicide and died. He would also submit that if they are released on bail, they may abscond and they would tamper the witnesses and hamper the investigation and the investigation is not yet completed, which is in preliminary stage. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by both counsel and considering the gravity of offence committed by the petitioners by claiming exorbitant interest from the deceased and also forced them to execute a sale deed in their favour, due to which both husband and wife committed suicide on writing a suicidal note and also the fact that investigation is still pending and it is in preliminary stage and if they are released on bail, they may abscond and there is possibility of tampering the witnesses and hampering the investigation, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioners.
