Crl.O.P.No.4470 of 2023

T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 5 & 7(3) of Lotteries Regulation Act 1998 in Crime No.75 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the other accused conducted illegal lottery draw. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been implicated falsely in this case only based on the confession statement given by A1. On instruction, he would further submit that without prejudice to his defence, the petitioner is prepared to deposit considerable amount to any charitable Organization or Association. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioner along with the co-accused was selling lottery tickets which were banned by the State Government. He further submitted that there are three previous cases pending against the petitioner. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
