CrI.O.P.No.4461 of 2023

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324, 427, 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.29 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 04.02.2023 during a party, there was a quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant. At that time, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and attacked him and also intimidated him. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that infact the petitioner is a victim and he was assaulted by the defacto complainant. He would further submit that on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, the petitioner is now made as an accused. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioner along with other accused have abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and also assaulted him. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned Counsel and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in
