forwarded the amount obtained from the defacto complainant to one Mubeesh Ahmed, who is running a travel agency. The said Mubeesh Ahmed failed to obtain work visa for the defacto complainant, for which, the petitioner has also lodged a complaint. He would further submit that he has nothing to do with the alleged offence and he is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner on the false promise of getting job in abroad, cheated the defacto complainant to the tune of Rs.7 lakhs and when it was questioned by the defacto complainant, the petitioner has threatened him with dire consequences. He further submitted that the investigation is still pending. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the submissions made by the learned counsel and the investigation is still
